HOMECOMING 2008

We were blessed to celebrate another Liberty Homecoming August the tenth. The spirit of the Lord was strong and our spirits were high. Brother Keaton brought a wonderful message in the morning which was followed by a wonderful meal. The Liberty ladies and gents prepared a fabulous country meal enjoyed by all. Several visitors including: family, friends and neighbors joined us for a meal and Bluegrass Gospel singing of Straight Creek. As the day came to a close everyone could truly say it was a great day in the Lord. We are already counting down the days to the next Homecoming.

Homecoming 2008
A wonderful day of fellowship, worship and praise to our Lord

Outrigger Island

By Ashley Farmer

Did you attend Vacation Bible School this summer with us? Well, in case you didn't, here is a little bit about what happened! Our theme was called "Outrigger Island" and was very enjoyable as we wore hula skirts, Hawaiian leis and learned a lot about Jesus. Our babies were taught by Leigha Burns. Our 1st & 2nd graders were taught by Teresa Gregory and David Lickliter. Our 3rd & 4th graders were taught by Sharon Vanover and Olivia Blakley. Our 5th & 6th graders were taught by Stacy Brock. The music teachers were Jackie Melton and Ashley Farmer. Our recreation was taught by Patrick Giles. Crafts were taught by Robyn Blakley, Bekah Brock and Brooke Green. The ladies that helped in the kitchen were Wilma Wagoner, Glenda Lickliter, Mary Lou Giles, Wanda Cochran, Jeannette Sams, Shirley Tunstall, Darlene Cupp and Bobbi Davis. All together, we had a great time while learning about Jesus and the world around us.
